Data on individuals for Culture Syndicates' company operations is not shared with external partners unless necessary, in compliance with our lawful basis for data processing.

Culture Syndicates have access to East Midlands Museums Service (EMMS) data during a partnership agreement to undertake their administration. This also complies with their lawful basis for data processing.

Data on audiences captured through audience surveying is anonymised where possible. Where contact details are captured, a privacy notice is included to gain consent at the time of sign up. This data is shared with clients, under our lawful basis for data processing.

Culture Syndicates' Data Protection policy and procedures ensures that data held is collected, stored and disposed of, and breaches are reported, in compliance to the current regulations.

GDPR ensures the right to be forgotten: a data subject may request that any information held on them is deleted or removed, and any third parties who process or use that data must also comply with the request. An erasure request can only be refused if an exemption applies.
